Joseph Announcement Talking Points

- ServeINC is a group of churches and businesses in the Albany area who have banded together to promote the gospel of Jesus Christ in the Albany area.
- The predecessor to ServeINC, Willamette Celebration, conducted a festival in TimberLinn Park in 2010. This festival was the largest event of its type up to that time. It featured a variety of community services, athletic demonstrations and featured evangelistic preacher Mike Silva.
- Since that time, ServeINC has united churches together to paint schools and to do other acts of community service each year.
- ServeINC desires to elevate the name of Jesus Christ in the Albany community through acts of service, prayer events and worship.
- Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is a family event that is designed to demonstrate the unity of churches in the Albany area.
  - The objective is for church people to bring their non-churched friends to this free event. This event becomes an opportunity to have conversation about the unity of churches in the Albany area. The world will pay attention to unity because the country is so sharply divided.
- Unity is a method of sharing the gospel. John 17: 20, 21
  - “I do not ask on behalf of these alone, but for those who believe in me through their word; (that is us) that they may all be one; even as You, Father are in Me and I in You, that they also may be in Us, so that the world may believe that You sent Me.
